IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

BALTIMORE DIVISION

WAYNE EARL JENKINS,

Pro Se Petitioner,

Case No 17 CR 106

Versus

EXCEPTION SHOW CAUSE ORDER
BY PRO SE DEFENDANT

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff/Respondent.

COMES NOW, Wayne Earl Jenkins, Defendant in Pro Se Capacity to submit an exception and moves this Honorable Court for Leave to Supplement Pro Se Compassionate Release Motion.

On August 11, 2020, the Court docketed a pro se motion for compassionate release. August 08, 2020 Entry of Appearance of Assistant United States Attorney Patrick G. Selwood as counsel for the United States of America in the instant action indicated as Document 584 Certificate of Service specifying August 25, 2020 served on counsel of record.

September 9, 2020 the Federal Public Defenders Office submitted notice it would not be supplementing pro se motion by virtue of letter to Court Hon. Catherine C. Blake.

And on September 11, 2020 Defendant is apprised of Federal Public Defender Shari Silver Derrow (Assistant Federal Public Defender) [“having reviewed your case, and unfortunately, my office will not be representing you in this matter. I have notified the Court that my office will not be supplementing your motion, so that it will proceed on your pro se filing.”]

Therefrom, on September 14, 2020 a Show Cause Order directing ”The United States Attorney SHALL RESPOND to the motion for compassionate release within 30 days of the date of this Order”. ... “The Clerk SHALL SEND a copy of this Order to Jenkins and counsel of record”.

Supplement date is 08-22-2020 and defendant must take exception wherein counsel of assignment or choice had not been resolved sufficiently as to Wayne Earl Jenkins, whereas supplement fairly was appropriate absent non-lodgement, respectfully leave is sought to allow supplement in this action and affect to show cause order presently rendered.

First the Federal Public Defender Office is appointed to review all motion for compassionate release and to supplement those motions when (THEY) believe it is appropriate to do so.

However, it was Defendant providing Supplement of Motion for Lodgement, which Federal Public Defender negated to provide the Court, by intent, pursuant a cognitive bias; OPR Complaint to follow for Professional Misconduct in feciscous retaliation.

Second, all procedural context to lodgement related to this instant proceeding are negating 3 day grace period of mails to pro se defendant. Or Local Rule 103. 9 . b) discussion.

WHEREFORE, it is prayed that leave be granted for pro se supplement to motion, that has no negative affect or prejudicial context upon any party to these proceedings. And is in accordance with Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and Local Court Rules for the Maryland U.S. District Court. Fed. R. Crim. P. Rule 44; Local Rule 103. 9. b); and Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 5 (a) and 16 et seq.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

MR. WAYNE EARL JENKINS
